

SYNERGY

Synergy describes the extra energy and capability that results in combined group effort to accomplish an objective. It means that a team can accomplish more than the same number of people working individually. In this case:

$$1 + 1 = 3.$$

This is why teamwork is so important to an organization. You should cooperate in every effort to develop synergy between you and your co-workers.